Comments:

Please address any concerns a Lodge may have; the difficulties it may be facing; steps taken to address these difficulties; issues that you believe the State Deputy, the State President, and the Grand Council should be made aware.

Per our by-laws, a District Deputy is required to attend meetings of the assigned Lodge at least once each quarter; submit a quarterly report to the State Deputy on or before the appointed dates; attend meetings held by the State Deputy. Please report matters of vital importance to the State Deputy immediately. Forward this completed form in a timely manner, so that a report may be presented to the State President, Executive Committee, and the Grand Council at the Plenary Session.
